

GRADUATE SCHEME 2019

Our exciting programme immerses new talent in the world of business and communications. You will be a core member of our client services team from day one and quickly acquire a detailed understanding of client and project management, business and financial systems, marketing and communications.

This programme has been designed for talented graduates with the aspiration and potential to join an award-winning communications team.

You will be able to specialise in one of our core areas of expertise; Capital Markets (Financial PR), Health, Corporate, Financial Services and Brand.

Our commitment to you is to put you at the heart of a fast moving, hard-working and lively environment where every day promises to be different. We will deliver a huge amount of training during 'Freshers Fortnight' to ensure you get up to speed quickly and continue to develop your skills. During your first 12 months, you will get to spend time in each of the practice areas and complete an external secondment, which will give you another perspective on communications.

At the end of the 12-month fast track programme we will hold a Graduation ceremony where you can celebrate with your colleagues and share your experience and learnings with the wider MHP team.

WHAT ARE WE LOOKING FOR?

A strong academic record, excellent written, oral and presentation skills, creativity, initiative and passion.

We look for candidates who can demonstrate a willingness to learn, intellectual curiosity, self-confidence, business etiquette and the readiness to go above and beyond.

The MHP graduate fast-track training scheme runs from September to September. We usually offer five positions a year across the company.

The MHP graduate scheme is now open for applications and we will accept applications until 3rd May 2019 with a view to interviewing candidates in May and June.
