Introduction

MHP is a strategic communications agency built for the networked age, applying the new rules of influence to solve complex problems.

With 160 staff, we provide deep expertise in brand, financial, corporate, health and public affairs – reflected in the fact that 200 organisations put their trust in MHP, including American Express, BNP Paribas, Kimberly-Clark, Nationwide, Klarna, Roche, The RAF, The Restaurant Group, and Saga.

From our office in London, we deliver global communications strategies for clients across the world, including ING, Coca-Cola European Partners, Avis, AstraZeneca, and many others.

The role:

We are looking for a dynamic Account Manager to join our team and work on an exciting portfolio of clients. The role will involve managing the day to day delivery of client programmes, providing regular advice to clients and support to account teams. The role will suit someone driven, who enjoys working in a forward thinking fast paced environment, and who is experienced in taking a proactive lead in a variety of scenarios and with multiple high-profile clients.

You will be passionate about financial services with a view on the evolution of the sector and the reputational challenges and opportunities this presents for clients and prospects. You will have good financial services experience and established media contacts at both national and trade publications.

Attention to detail and strong proofreading and quality control is essential. Excellent writing must also be a core skill, plus strong organisational and planning skills and the confidence to handle and deliver client programmes without regular supervision.

You'll have proven experience of forming strong client relationships built on trust, leadership and respect and understand the importance of staying creative and relevant in your approach in order to bring thoughtful ideas to client's attention.

Key responsibilities:

- Lead on day-to-day client activity and teams.
- Proactively seek and manage media opportunities for clients.
- Develop and nurture key media relationships.
- Maintain a good understanding of clients' business objectives, media and issues in their wider industry sector
- Manage and develop communications programmes for clients that enable them to meet their communication and commercial objectives.
- Assist with new business preparation and pitching.
- Keep up to date with the latest social media trends, proactively developing material and awareness of MHP's digital offering.
- Manage and mentor junior team members.

The successful candidate:

- Will have at least 2-3 years of relevant PR & communications experience working in either agency or in-house roles
- Will be passionate about financial services and have some experience of working with clients in the sector. You'll be highly motivated and keen to work across a broad spectrum of clients including wealth and asset management, fintech, retail banking, consumer finance and private equity/venture capital.
- Will have experience of working across corporate positioning, brand building and reputation management briefs
- Will have a track record of forming strong client relationships built on trust and respect and understand the importance of staying creative and relevant in your approach
- Will have a forward-thinking view of communications and an appreciation of the role that different disciplines and skills can play in reaching audiences across a range of traditional and digital channels.
